Calling all artists! What does the library and/or reading mean to you?
Enter the Southworth Library Card Design Contest. Your artwork might be featured on a special, limited edition library card.

Rules for entry:

- All submissions must be created on the template supplied by the Library. It is available at the library and on our website at www.southworthlibrary.org
- Designs must incorporate reading and/or libraries
- The contest is open to school aged children from K—12th grade
- Only one entry is allowed per person
- Each submission must be the creative and original work of a single individual and free of copyright restrictions
- Words may be incorporated only as graphic elements
- Submissions may be in any art medium (pencil, pen, paint, crayon, etc)

All entries must be submitted to the Southworth Library, or scanned (300 dpi) and emailed to director@southworthlibrary.org by 5 p.m. on May 17, 2019. Submission implies full release of all rights to the submitted artwork. No late entries will be accepted.

Southworth Library reserves the right to deny entry to any submission deemed inappropriate due to the use of derogatory language or imagery, use of copyrighted materials (including cartoons, excerpts from books, etc.), or entries that do not incorporate reading and/or libraries.

The artwork will be available for public voting on the website and at the library from May 20 — 24 . A committee of library staff, teachers, community members, and public vote will determine the final winning design. The card will be printed and made available to Southworth Library patrons in the summer of 2019.

Questions about the design contest can be directed to Diane Pamel at 607-844-4782 or director@southworthlibrary.org. This design contest is sponsored through generous funding from TalkTime Dryden
